Court: Disk no 1. to the left of the caster. 8 meters from the upper middle front edge of the platform. Disk no 5. to the right, 13 meters from the upper middle front edge of the platform. Disc 2,3 and 4 on a straight line between no 1. and no 5. Disc no 3. always placed directly in front of the platform. All distances to the targets to be measured from the upper middle front edge of the platform to the centers of the target discs. Distance between the centers of the target discs to be 1.80 meters.

Dry Fly

Round: Caster must start with fly in hand and rod-length fly-line,(no loose fly-line at reel) leader not included. Dry fly casting one try at time on each target in the following order. 3 - 1 - 4 - 2 - 5 - 3 - 1 - 4 - 2 - 5. At least one false cast shall be made between each score or lay of the fly. All ten targets to be cast to in the consecutive order given, or as many as time permits. Fly line may only be shortened or lengthened during false casting, with rod in motion, no stripping of the line from the reel allowed when rod is not in casting motion. Improper strip or shortened of the line shall make the next cast non-scoring.

Wet Fly

Round: Having completed the dry fly round, the caster pulls the fly line back into evel with disc no 1. then the caster makes two rounds, one wet fly cast at a time on each target in consecutive order 1 - 2 - 3 - 4 - 5 - 1 - 2 - 3 - 4 - 5. Line may be pulled in to shorten length between targets no 5. and no 1., but no blind or false casting allowed between casts on targets.

Casting: Casting contrary to regulations (such as repeatedly touching the ground with the leader or the fly line) the Caster will be warned and by ignorance the caster can expect to be scored zero. Should the fly, caused by bad floor or grass conditions, during wetfly round, hang, is it up to the international judge to decide if the caster should be given one more try.

Time: Time limit 5 minutes and 30 seconds

Score: Each hit in target scores 5 points. Maximum score 100 points. Edge of the discs to be counted as the target.
